

1/ you played in a famous uk Black Metal band, why did you leave?! in your new band you play lot of thrash are u bored of BM?!

Musical Differences the other guys say! We all like varying styles of Music so are not opposed to incorporate them into our song...Not at all bored with Black Metal but don't want to be known as a purly BM band.

2/ A lot of people know you but you still have bombarded everybody to make them aware of you have a new band are u scare to be forgotten?! u have given away your first demo do u think all bands should do so and what did it bring u?!

You need to keep people aware of you, we are a new band and this is just the way we happen to be promoting ourselves.

3/ this first cd of 4 tx is a bit special as the first t is BM, the 2nd Gothic and the others Thrash Metal, what can we think about this? are u still not sure of what you wanna play or it's a fight in the everyday's band life?!

The songs were played as they came together, both the song writers (me and Pete), had some old material which we got out of our system on the first demo.

4/What do you think about the music today? and the explosion of BM?!

Most of your KERRANG style bands are a waste of space, but the underground scene as a whole I feel is thriving.

5/ why your drummer left after recording the demo?! not really nice. y're doing yr site is it a hobby or s't'g u're working for?!

Dan left because he lived 200 miles away from us, and he was unemployed which made it hard for him to get the money together to come to us for a practise. He done the demo for us and then called it a day, everything was amicable and we are still good friends!

The web site is for the band, not a hobby at all but seems to be turning into one :)

6/ What's your view of england today, don't u loose faith s't's ?! daya thi'k u've to be in lond'n to be signed or noticed? why haven't u joined another band already set up?! What Slaughter of souls have to bring to the Metal scene?!

England has some good bands on offer, and we feel you don't need to come from London to get signed / noticed. We like doing our own thing, which is why we got together because we all have the same goal / interests ambitions. Slaughter Of Souls we feel will hopefully bring back Metal to these shores again, along with loads of beer drinking!

See ya
